About the school

Goodness Royal School is a deliberately small, co-educational school in Alagbado, Lagos. Classes are capped at eighteen pupils so that teachers can hear every child read, mark every piece of work and report progress in plain language to parents. The school runs a full Creche, Nursery, Primary and Secondary programme, with the motto - Applied Knowledge is Power - treated as a daily instruction rather than a slogan.

Levels offered

Creche & Early Years	From about 18 months. Settling, play, language and routine in a named carer group.
Nursery	Phonics, number play, creative work and the social habits that make Primary easier.
